Dear Mr. Lummis:

We open our new Clubhouse and Headquarters for the Western Rangers on Saturday April 5th and on Sunday evening, April 6th, we are having "open house" for our High School boys.

Four of the Hopis that we brought up for the Mission Play are coming over to show the boys some of the Hopi Ceremonial dances. We would be honored, indeed, to have you as a guest of honor on Sunday evening, and trust that you will be able to be with us.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Dr. Lummis:

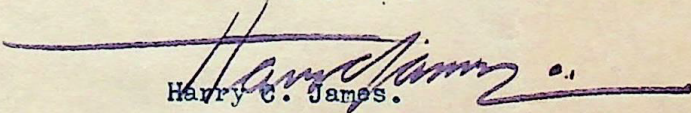

My high schools boys, who meet here every Sunday evening, from 7:30 on are very anxious to learn a number of those wonderful old Spanish songs that you and Arthur Farwell taught us at the City Club several days ago.

They would like to learn them to sing around the campfire on our different camps and hikes and have asked me to write you in the hope that you and Mr. Farwell can come over some Sunday evening to teach us the songs. We do not have a piano but if you can come we will beg, borrow, rent or steal one.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. James:-

That would be very interesting, and if you can get Mr. Farwell for some Sunday evening, and will let me know enough in advance, I will try to be with you. The Songs would be just the thing for the campfire; and I am very much interested to have them take root in the hearts and memories of the boys.

Dear Mr. Lummis:

I don't think that I have ever made an announcement that was greeted with greater enthusiasm by the boys, than the announcement that you and Mr. Farwell would be with us on Sunday evening.

We have secured a piano and are prepared to give you a rousing reception. I feel that the songs will be sung at every campfire that the Western Rangers will hold from now on, and it will be splendid to have such worth-while additions to our rather scanty selection.

Sincerely yours,

Harry C. James.

Dear Mr. Lummis:

Just a line to express the volumes of appreciation that we all felt for your kindness in coming over Sunday night and helping us learn those wonderful songs.

The boys are singing them everywhere and the tunes run thru my head constantly. I am sure that they will never be forgotten. You have given us something that will be a joy to us for life.

One of the boys took one of your books on Sunday night and turned in the dollar at the office instead of to you, so I am inclosing it.

Sincerely yours,

Harry C. James.

Dear Mr. Lummis:

Please deliver to bearer the twenty-five copies of "Spanish Songs" you spoke of.

I have made arrangements for Joe Di Giorgio of our ShoShone Council to call at your home Monday evening at 7:00 o'clock for you. He is very glad indeed to have this opportunity as he was one of the boys who enjoyed learning the songs here last Sunday night.

We are indeed glad to have this opportunity to show our appreciation for the wonderful time you afforded us last Sunday evening.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Lummis:

We still have a few of the song books left on hand but will be able to send you a check for the amount we owe very shortly.

We would like to hold the books we still have as I feel we can dispose of them before very long. All the songs that you and Mr. Farwell taught us that night are now being sung on practically every camp that we have and I don't know that we have ever had a finer contribution to our work.

We expect to get out a magazine for our boys and I am wondering if you could possibly allow us to reprint your story "The Enchanted Mesa" from "A New Mexico David".

Sincerely yours,

Harry C. James.

Dear Mr. James:-

That will be alright. You can hold the books still on hand, while there is reasonable hope of selling them.

It is very gratifying that the Songs that Farwell and I started you on that night are being sung in your camps. I know of no better flowers for the boys to cultivate. I am sorry I cannot let you reprint the story "The Enchanted Mesa" in your Magazine. An article could be written from it, with brief extracts here and there,
without any objection.

Wishing you and your organization
all sorts of success for the coming year.

Sincerely Yours?

Mr. Harry C. James,

The Western Rangers,

Dear Harry James:

I have never had anything yet, even on account, for the twenty-five books of "Spanish Songs of Old California," which I sent you at your request May 17, 1924. I dropped you a line November 26th about this matter; and you asked time, but said you would attend to the matter "soon."

You know I do not wish to be unneighborly; but this seems to me to have been a good run of patience. It makes it awkward to have accounts unsettled, especially in a little private publishing house like mine; so I will be glad if you can clear this up very soon.

With best wishes for you and your work, and hoping the boys will come and see me soon,

Always Faithfully Yours,

CFL-MB

My dear Mr. Lummis:

I am enclosing a check for $16.00 in payment of account rendered and am indeed sorry that the returned books were rolled up that were sent to you. If they were damaged in any way please let me know so that we can make payment for them.

I appreciate more than I can tell you the joy that these songs have brought to our campfires. They have been sung around the fire from the desert to the sea, from the top of Mt. San Geronio to our camp at the base of Padre Garces Falls in Havasupai Canyon. I only hope that we may soon have some more of them.

Sincerely yours,

HARRY C. JAMES.

Mr. Harry C. James,

Los Angeles, Cal.

My dear Mr. James:

Thank you for your check in full of account, and your jolly letter. The rolled, returned books have been straightened out so that they will do.

I am very glad that the dear old songs have "caught" at your camp fires, and that they are part of your outfit. That is the kind of thing I want to have happen to them. Last Sunday I had the pleasure of watching the inimitable Harry Barnhart drive a couple of them into the slow consciousness of four or five thousand Iowa and other people; but your Live boys are much better material, and I am much gladder to have them learn these jewels of our Old Romance.

I hope to get the Second Book out within a few weeks--but interruptions are many.

With all good wishes,

Sincerely yours,

CFL/B

Dear Harry James:

The nine return-copies came safely today--they shouldn't have been rolled, but I can restore them.

This leaves sixteen copies to be paid for; and as it is a year since you got them, I trust you will close the matter up at once.

With best wishes,

Always Sincerely Yours,
